This municipality was created on November 16, 1953, by Law nº 1480, for the purpose of creating new municipalities on agricultural lands in Ribeirão Preto, Ribeirão Gerais, Campinas, São Paulo, Guarulhos, and also for urbanization. The creation of the town was prompted by the desire of Mário de Castro Neves Neto to improve the quality of life of the people he lived with and the proximity to his businesses, based in Santa Isabel. São Gonçalo was named after Gonçalo Ribeiro and his wife. During the government of Fernando Collor de Mello, São Gonçalo was part of the county of São Vicente. It became part of the municipality of Rio Verde on January 1, 1975. A few months later, on July 1, it became a part of the municipality of Santa Isabel, taking the name of "São Gonçalo de Figueira", and left Rio Verde.
